(3.) Letter no. 35 Dy 11-7-1913.

Submits copy of the memo called for in 8. 2.

The petrs. Complaints are that during the Navaratri festival of 1906 in the Sri Narayanaswamy temple at Melkote the usual chitta nakshtra utsava was not celebrated, that regular accounts are not maintained, that utsavas on true Vahanas are not being conducted and extra expenditure is being incurred &c.

It is reported that in the years 1901, 1902 and 1905, the chitta nakshtra katle utsavam has been stopped, and the amount allotted for it brought under Savings, that the people who know something of the affair change their opinions according to circumstances, that the other allegations are too insignificant to notice, and that it is the habit of the people of the place to petition like this. Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No. 3501 of the 18th February 1908 forwarding a petition (herewith returned) from Tirumale Sreenivasa Desika Chari Complaining against the peshkar of the Melkote temple re the non-performance of Chitta Nakshatra etc Kattle utsavams etc

And

and Calling for a report as to the truth or otherwise of the allegations therein made, I have the honor to state that the Deputy Amildar reports that it is difficult to get at the truth by personal enquiry as the people who know something of the affairs are likely to change their opinions according to circumstances that it has been ascertained from the accounts maintained that on certain occasions the particular Chitta Nakshatra Kattle utsavam has been stopped and the amount allotted for it brought under savings, and that the other allegations are too insignificant

to

to notice adding that it has become the habit of people of the place to petition like this.

The Sub Division officer also is of the same opinion.

In these circumstances and on account of the lapse of time, I do not think that the matter requires further investigation. The peshkar is now Head Gumasta of the Nagamangala Taluk.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
K. Chandu
